

WELCOME

Note for the honourable teachers:

The subject teachers are requested to read the notes given below the slides.

Notes are given bellow the slide no. 6 and 7.

INTRODUCTION

SUBJECT: English 1st Paper

CLASS: Six/Seven

Topic: Paragraph on “Your Reading Room”

Learning Outcomes

After this lesson the students will be able to-

- talk about a picture.
- write a paragraph on “Your reading room”

Look at the pictures and find out which things are usually needed in a reading room?

Bookshelf

Refrigerator

*Table
clock*

Chair

Bowl

Table

Look at the picture. This is Karim's reading room. Now describe the picture. (Pair Work)

Re-write the following passage using the name of the pictures.

Karim is a student. He has a reading room. It has two windows and one door. There are a , a  and a . On the table there are a  and a . Books are nicely arranged in the bookshelf. His reading room is very neat and clean. It also serves the purpose of his  room.  loves his reading room very much.

Answering the following questions write a paragraph on “Your Reading Room”. (10 minutes)

1. What is a reading room?
2. What things are there in your reading room?
3. How is your reading room arranged?
4. How does it look?
5. How do you feel in your reading room?

Homework

Write a paragraph about your own classroom.

Acknowledgement

MoE, DSHE, NCTB & A2I respective of officials

And the editors panel: Ranjit Poddar, Associate Professor (English) TTC, Dhaka, Md. Jahangir Hasan (English), Assistant Professor TTC, Rangpur and Urmila Khaled Assistant Professor (English) TTC, Dhaka.

Their direction, valuable suggestions and intensive supervision have enriched the model contents.

THANK YOU ALL

